

SUPER STATE ALLIANCE ON THE WAY, THE NEW BIG CHANGE IN STATE #89

✍️ Editorial Council

"We plan to create a super alliance with the top 3 alliances... only the best and active players... the rest will be distributed among the alliances, mainly the two new ones and DAD... however, we will take the lvl 6 territory and plan to give the remaining two to PA13 and XOXO... if anyone disagrees, we will unfortunately force them... what do you think about this?", Mr Wujo, R5 of RI$E, communicated to our journalist MsLadyGrim in a private message.

The Editorial Council believes this arose after ~DAD's Minister of Communications and Public Relations, MsLadyGrim, acting on behalf of the alliance and its R5, contacted the R5s of WSS, PA13, and XOXO to seek a unification into a bloc to present a new proposal to take over the Level 6 and Level 5 territories. MsLadyGrim alleges that this decision arose after MrBigDEnergy, R5 of NWE, proposed in the NAP chat that the three most powerful alliances in State #89 retake the Level 6 territories. The ~DAD chancellor believes that SpicyJo or CuddleFish, R5s of WSS and XOXO in their respective order, leaked the information because, according to her, the R5 of PA13 positively evaluated the idea put forward by ~DAD.

MsLadyGrim, representing Luxury Time and not ~DAD, asked Mr. Wujo why all this, and he responded by claiming, "not everyone agrees with our position regarding the territory, so we want to make it easier. I know a little about what you know and from whom, I don't like to share information easily".

With the super state alliance on the way to creation, our reporter asks if the former powerhouse alliance of State #89, RealHunter (RLHN), will return, and Mr. Wujo responds, "RLHN will never come back, RI$E wants nothing to do with this name!"
