SILENCED.

✍️ La ReiNa

When Battles Are Lost in a Chat. In the theater of alliance warfare, victory and defeat are often decided far from the battlefield. Our correspondent in the kingdom's chat has witnessed a tense exchange between the allegedly defeated King Orange and the cunning zunyah. The conflict centers on the defense of a capital. King Orange hides behind a supposed "game bug" and the lack of strong players to explain the defeat. However, zunyah doesn't buy the excuse, insisting that the responsibility lies with a lack of effort and the alliance's inability to recognize its own weakness. The tension escalates with accusations of "crying" and "arrogance," showing that in the chat, pride is just as valuable as any resource. In this realm, it's not enough to win; you also have to control the narrative. True power isn't in military might, but in who gets the last word.

BETRAYAL

✍️ La ReiNa

MsLadyGrim publicly confronted Mr. Wujo with questions worthy of a telenovela: "Who did you marry? Who is that woman on your profile?" The poor Wujo, caught between nerves and emojis, dropped the most lethal line: "Ohhh, I didn't ask her name." The tension rose like an attacked truck: accusations of betrayal, broken promises to rewrite the story of Romeo and Juliet, and even claims of living in different worlds. La ReiNa joined the drama, delivering the final, devastating blow: "Ohhh traitor without honor." The entire server is still watching: Is it true love, a betrayal, or just a bad script that no one bothered to rehearse?

196, THOSE WILL BE THE MIGRATION SLOTS

MsLadyGrim

With less than a week left before the end of Season 4, migration will begin for the transition into the fifth season. The slots available to immigrate to each State will be divided into four different levels.

For the “elite immigration invitation slot”, there will be only 1 slot; for the advanced level, 5 slots; for the medium level, 20 slots; and for the regular level, 170 immigration slots.

Not being part of any alliance, the survivor must maintain a “regular identity” or have received an invitation, not be the acting President during migration—these are some of the conditions required to migrate. To use the regular immigration slot, you must have a Watchtower at level 30 or lower.

MeowFIA [XOXO] and THE PATROL 2.0 [PA13], now THE ROGUE PATROL [RO13], are the two alliances that immigrated to State 89 for Season 4.

FUSION OF STATES 1 TO 24, HOW WILL IT TURN OUT?

✍️ La ReINa

States 1 to 24 will merge starting September 1, in a process that will take place between 4:00 and 10:00 server time (ST), according to an announcement issued by the game team on August 29 at 15:00 ST.

The first round, scheduled for 4:00 ST, will merge State 1 with 4, with State 1 remaining as the main one, while State 3 will merge into 5, with the latter remaining active. At 5:30 ST, States 15 and 18 will merge, with State 15 remaining, as well as States 19 and 20, continuing under State 20. By 7:00 ST, it will be the turn of States 21 and 22, with State 21 remaining, as well as States 16 and 24, with State 16 remaining active. Finally, at 8:30 ST, State 14 will absorb State 17, and State 13 will absorb State 23.

The announcement specifies that each phase will last approximately 90 minutes, during which players will not be able to log in. After the process, survivors will be relocated around their alliance's rally point, and the capitals, cities, armories, and presidential positions of the surviving States will be preserved.

Likewise, arena points will be transferred to the new State, world bosses such as Frankenstein and the Biomutant will be relocated, purchased packs will be reissued, and certain progress, such as battle pass progress, will be reset to fit the new environment.

According to the announcement, players involved in this reorganization will receive rewards as compensation for the process.

"HAHA WE SURVIVED ROSE...WE CAN GET THROUGH ANYTHING", SPICYJO SAID AFTER LT PUBLISHED THE FLOWER WAR

✍MsLadyGrim

"Ok my first statement would be...That Rose is a hoot. Couldn't stop laughing at her little story", thus began SpicyJo's right to reply in relation to a single exclusive interview published by the Editorial Team titled "The Flower War", where Dark R0se, the first former president of State 89, spoke about her experience and her version of her story about the accusations against her.

Can you detail your statement?

She does not know how to tell the truth. I dont know if she has had to manipulate her way through life, but people fall for her stories and it's kind of impressive.

What is it that you disagree with that she said and what is she "manipulating"?

She has been going behind the scenes talking behind people's backs since day 1. People get fed up. People get tired of being used and sabotaged. I did not leave RLHN because of some silly rose event. I left because my closest friend, Hoop, hated her. He did not want to be under her thumb anymore, so I went with him.

She demonstrated, with evidence, an in-game group chat called "SUPER TEAM," where your name appears. She reinforced this with other evidence on Discord where they talked about the same thing. How do you respond to her?

Nowhere in that chat, did I speak. I woke up to being added to that group. I was unaware it existed. She actually knew before I did, as I was sleeping when it was made.

Can you confirm that you were Rose's right-hand and that, according to her, she told you everything from administrative and representative tasks to personal ones?

Yes we talked everyday. I told her things about my real life as well. Which in hindsight...telling a stranger in a game anything personal, was a mistake.

Rose accused you of initiating a vote to remove her from the NAP, what's your version of that story?

That's actually the funniest part. I fought to get her back in nap. Several people will tell you the same thing. I proposed her and BR1N to be forgiven, and even had her join WSS after.

Have you ever considered Rose as a friend?

I did...I was wrong.

Rose talked about a private Discord room that you kept completely secret from her, as she's R5. What was that room for?

Knighty had asked me to make a chat with selected people. Things were tense in RLHN, and he and Hoop were wanting to discuss the next plan. I barely spoke. It was just a few people venting. No one needs permission to have conversations. I was upfront and honest with her about the chat. I did not feel the need to lie about it.

"HAHA WE SURVIVED ROSE...WE CAN GET THROUGH ANYTHING", SPICYJO SAID AFTER LT PUBLISHED THE FLOWER WAR

✍MsLadyGrim

Let's talk about the, according to you, "silly rose event". It's true that RLHN celebrated an intern competition about that event?

I have yet to ask for any rose, or chocolates or anything from the alliance or world chat. It was BigD who was trying to keep Sassy and myself in top 10. He can tell you how much money he spent. On more than one occasion, I told people not to worry about me, just as long as others in the alliance got the wt skin.

I am referring to the past event where RLHN still existed.

Yes I know. BigD was Rotorhead at the time.

Who won the internal competition?

I think it was rose, but I was unaware that members were competing with one another.

Rose said that Rotor won the internal competition to see who could give away the most roses, can you certify that statement?

I'm sure he did. But I was no longer in RLHN at the time.

When you were in RLHN, did you know someone had a crush on you?

Yes, it happens lol not a big deal.

Do you remember who he was?

Lol knighty. He does not play anymore so I don't feel comfortable talking about him though.

Rose accused you of trying to dismantle RLHN, what's your version of that story?

I left with my friend. A couple people followed us, but I actually never told anyone to come with me. Nick and I have stuck together since then, but in no way do I sway people. I simply told him i was leaving with Hoop.

Rose said that every alliance you join falls apart, citing INX, BROO, and WSS as examples. What's your response to that statement?

Inx was a merger. We joined there to help them. Pam was aware. Broo did not work out but part of the game is evolving and moving around, as people quit, alliances get stronger. It's a game, it's strategy.

And WSS?

Simply that...strategy. it would be nice to be in the same alliance from beginning to end. But as a spender, you want to optimize your gameplay best you can. I could throw thousands into an account, but not get anywhere. Wss was the hardest decision for everyone, but when people feel unsatisfied and want to change how they play, then you can't fault them for that.

"HAHA WE SURVIVED ROSE...WE CAN GET THROUGH ANYTHING", SPICYJO SAID AFTER LT PUBLISHED THE FLOWER WAR

✍MsLadyGrim

Rose said "I think the flower event created a jealousy. From what I was told by others, her goal was to be in control of the strongest alliance and the server. And technically, she basically accomplished that. And what did she do with it? She ran the NAP, even when she was just an R four in WSS. And here is my point. It is under her leadership that the server fell. But you never hear about that. All you hear about is how it's my fault when I have no say on the server, thanks to her vote to keep me out.", what can you say about that statement?

I had to make a nap chat. She went bonkers and deleted every chat and discord channel to teach everyone a lesson. Mely and I put our heads together to pull it back together. In no way did I run nap chat. I simply made a new chat when she destroyed the old one. I would help votes along, yes. But I did that for her when I was in RLHN as well. I was in the #4 alliance. My voice was not that big lol if nwe wanted to control everything, they had the power to do so. And as far as the rose event, I genuinely don't care for the wt skins. They're too cutesy for my taste. Some people just let it go to their heads.

Did you read Rose's response when the Luxury Time team asked her about the moment when she burned down the entire server?

Yes. She never takes ownership. She blames kyoubou, or anyone else other than herself. She's older than me...she should be able to take accountability.

Rose said: "On the day we did capital. I found out he had been messaging R5s, telling them that if they make him an R4, he will bring all the strong players from RLHN with him. NSTR accepted his offer, and Aeyd went with him.", what can you confirm about that statement?

She will also never tell you that after it happened, she called me laughing about taking out M&M. That was referring to Adame. I never went to NSTR.

Rose mentioned that Kyoubou knows each other in real life, what can you verify from that information?

Yes, that's one thing she did tell the truth about.

Rose said that ROG begged you at the NAP to let her into that alliance, but you wouldn't let her. What's your version of that story?

That was a nap vote. Rog approached nap chat, and after rose burned the server and refused buffs, she was not welcome into nap until I asked everyone to forgive her.

At that time, was there someone leading the NAP or was there no leadership figure?

I actually lost credibility and friends at the time, because I remained friends with her. No one was "leading" per say. I simply owned the chat to help, but we tried to do things as All leaders, not just one person.

✍MsLadyGrim

Do you want to send Rose a message through Luxury Time?

Not really. I have her blocked for a reason. Maybe...try not to go behind friends backs to try to sabotage them. It's hurtful.

Any message for people who don't know your story and for those who know it partially?

Choose your friends wisely. Have fun in the game. Play however you want. Drama is useless.

And for those who were part of that history who are still in State #89?

Haha we survived Rose...we can get through anything.

Do you have any final message or conclusion to close this interview?

No, whether I continue playing or not, it's a fun game if you let it be.

*EDITORIAL NOTE: We asked SpicyJo if she could provide us with a screenshot to reinforce her statements, she said that "I could send screenshots of everything she said, but im gonna move on from it. I don't need to drag other people into her mess lol. The screenshots I received are from other people and that's not trust I'm willing to break".

KYUBOU'S RIGHT TO REPLY TO THE FLOWER WAR NEWS

✍️Kyubou, courtesy

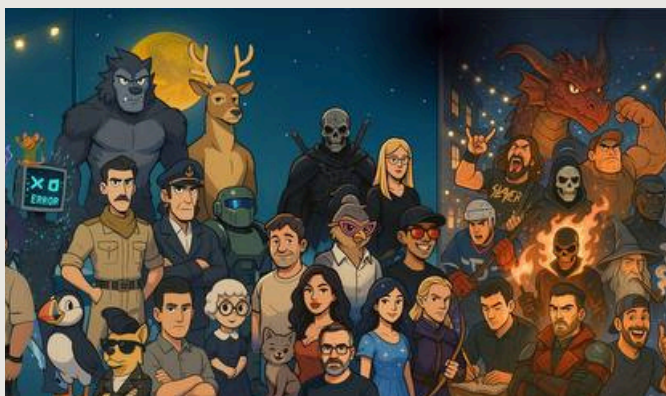

On the day in question everything happened after the SvS against 90. The fight was over 5 hours were we lost due to people running out of troops/tired/ gave up. There was finger pointing and bickering in both Nap discord, in game nap chat, R4 chat RLHN, world chat, and event chat. That's when Adame and Aeyd both left RLHN for M&M. Rose warned Gorgie aka King princess that she was going to burn Adame for stabbing her in the back for a 3rd time in about a month. Gorgie said no. So Rose tossed r5 of RLHN to Rotor and left. She called me to come over she was about to burn Adame. When I got to her place she was in the process of burning Adame. When she finished burning him she sat her phone down and said I'm done. I quit. I asked if she was sure and she said YES! So I picked up her phone and zeroed Gorgie, Adame, and Creed. Creed was more so for abusing the women in nap chat/discord. I hit Hoop once for trying to reinforce Gorgie. They then decided they wanted to hit me on Dark Rose and I turtled up. Then some how someone guessed it was me on Rose and said something in world chat. Next thing you know I look at my phone and see Lucifer's Wife aka Cyborg Luci was screaming in RLHN chat that I need to be kicked out of the alliance. So I left the alliance due to only Rotor being able to kick me since I was an r4 at the time. As much as people want to think it was Rose burning people she just burned Adame once. I zeroed him, Creed, and Gorgie. I never denied it nor did I apologize for it.
