Since the migration began and ended, the alliances have been reconfigured.

Previously, it was RI$E, NWE, PRG, WSS, DAD, MAD!, and FURY, in their respective order. With the arrival of XOXO and PA13, MAD! has merged with DAD, and FURY becomes the new XOXO.

NEW PRESIDENCY UNDER SCRUTINY

MsLadyGrim

Bossku takes office under the banner of RI$E after taking the capital. Various alliances are questioning the ruling alliance for including an alliance from State 90 as allies in the presidential race.

LUXURY TIME attempted to obtain a response from the president; by press time, he declined to answer questions from this outlet.

Former President MrBigDEnergy asserts that many alliances wanted him to retake the capital to continue a fourth presidential term, but "I didn't show up (at the capital event) because we couldn't have won. So it was mood point. Even if other alliances gave up there best people to NWE it wouldn't have been enough. RI$E is the power Alliance of the server now" he stated. We also asked him which alliances had supported him, but he told us he prefers not to answer that question.

LUXURY TIME attempted to contact maxymoo, one of the main victims and targets of Korolev, by the time of writing this article, but we have not received a response. The former RI$E member claims via the World Chat that he has never attacked as a team and that he only fights against "you" (KRAK and RI$E). He emphasized that he will return in 25 days "and it will hurt everyone".

MESSAGE TO THE STATE: WHAT DID THE NEW PRESIDENT SAY?

MsLadyGrim

"Let's face it - #89 has been through a rough patch" was how Bossku began his message to the state since he took office on July 12th. Regarding the closure of migration, he welcomed new alliances PA13 and XOXO from state #94, thanking them for "brought life, energy, and competition back to #89." He continued his message by announcing the arrival of season 4 of the game, pointing out that "let's stop seeing each other as rivals and start seeing each other as potential." He emphasized that buffs remain open to everyone and that the vice presidency will be exclusively for RI$E members.
